This morning the Ohio county board of commissioners resumes its recounting sessions, and at 10 o'clock will take up the recount demanded for Edward Dearly, defeated Democratic candidate for county commissioner in Union dis-trict. At Saturday's session, the recount in Triadelphia on constable, resuited in John Anderson gaining but two votes, thus reducing the majority of his successful Democratic competitor, Shep Smith, from 13 to 11.

The official tabulation of the Ohio county vote was completed Saturday afternoon by the county commissioners, but the totals have not been completed. The returns as canvassed will appear in the Intelligencer of to-morrow morning.

The Republican city committee man W. H. Hornish, together with the several aspirants for nominations—not, however, including aspirants for coun-cilmanic nominations.

Senator and Mrs. N. B. Scott left on Saturday for Colorado, where the sena-tor was called by telegraph on urgent business. He will return as soon as possible and spend several days in Wheeling before going to Washington.

Delegate-elect S. G. Smith, of this city, feels confident that he will be the speaker of the house of delegates. His candidacy has been well received over the state. Martin, of Kanawha, and Darst, of Jackson, are avowed candidates for the speakership, and Judge Reynolds, of Mineral, is spoken of in that connection, but in a letter to Mr. Smith he rather conveys the impression that he will not enter the race.

PROF. HAUPT'S LECTURES.

Interesting and Instructive Talks on How to Acquire German.

If you do not speak German and If you heard either of the lectures on that subject last week in Hibberd's hall, you will wish you could if your feelings are at all akin to that of the reporter's. will wish you could it your feelings are at all akin to that of the reporter's. There are inspirational teachers. Professor Haupt is both. His system of teaching German is one of the few things in life that are indescribable, that must be seen and heard to comprehend. The audience from the beginning to the end of the lecture, most enthusiastically received all the speaker said, much of which was in the German language, but couched in language that to the surprise of the writer and the audience was perfectly understood.

The "Hauptonian System" of teaching the German language is based on common sense principles, and anyone who will favor himself by going and listening to this remrakable teacher at work cannot but feel convinced that Haupt's methods of teaching the German language are as far in advance of the ordinary methods as the most modern mode of travel compared with the most primitive slow way of "getting there." As will be seen in another column, the course of lessons opens today.

THE CARROLL CLUB FLOWER SHOW TUESDAY

Is Attracting General Attention, and Will be Liberally Patronized.

THE FLORISTS ARE COMPETING

For the Honors and Each is Determined to Outshine the Other Exhibitors.

A large portion of the Carroll Club's handsome building on Chapline street, has undergone a transformation for the Chrysanthemum Bazaar, Rows on rows of stands for the competitive display of flowers have been erected in the library, billiard and card rooms and the two parlors, and the exhibitors to-day will begin arranging their displays for the opening Tuesday afternoon.

The displays will be in charge of the ladies of the club, who have also provided for a number of side entertainincluding a Turkish smoker, gypsy camp and country store, and the inner man will be attended to in the "Dinner," to be served daily, commencing at 5 p. m. All told, 100 ladies and gentlemen are interested in the planning and conduct of the Bazaar. The florists will be given ample room, for almost half of the commodious club house has been set aside for their bene-The Wheeling Greenhouse Company will occupy the billiard room; George Greiner, the card room; Max Hess, the ladies' parlor; Franz Laupp, the gentlemen's parlor, and John Hellstern, the library. There will be 10,000 gorgeous chrysanthemums on show.

The flower show will be competitive in character and being the first of its kind in the city, has stimulated the florists to put forth their best in stock. Fall flow-er shows are conspicuous society functions in the larger cities and parties are being formed in Wheeling's smart set to take in the affair at the Carroll Club

For a fifth of a century Manager Yale has continually kept the "Devil's Auction" before the public and each year this attraction is revised and brought up to date in every respect. The many novelties, innovations and specialties, for this season far surpass all previous years; in fact, not one old feature remains, and the many patrons of this famous spectacle will find that the only thing old in the performance is the name. Among the many new speclaitles may be mentioned M'lle Irene and Zaza, The Girl with the Dog with the Auburn Hair, a novel act seen outside of New York for the first time; the three Brothers Leando, comedy acrobats; the Clements Sisters, in an artistic singing and daneing specialty; the Sidonia troupe, an importation from the training school of Madam Phasey; Richard T. Brown, the comedian; Miss Annie Lloyd, "The Vital Spark," and numerous others in conjunction with the special novelty entitled, "The Dance of the Elements," an electrical novelty, and produced for the first time with the "Devil's Auction," together with new scenery, costumes, tricks and transformation. It will undoubtedly be the best performance of this long-lived speciacle, and the patrons of the Opera House have a treat in store for them this evening. side of New York for the first time; the #### Big Production Promised.

One of the most interesting events of the theatrical season is announced for the first half of this week at the Grand the first half of this week at the Grand Opera House, in Callahan's big production, "A Romance of Coon Hollow," with the same scenery and effects used during its triumphant season at the Fourteenth Street theatre, New York, All of the scenery and effects are carried, and besides a strong company, the organization includes the Coon Hollow screenaders, a troupe of colored singers organization includes the Coon Hollow serenaders, a troupe of colored singers and dancers, boys and girls, absolutely unequalled. Unique electric and calcium displays are also features, but the play depends rather on vigorous plot and well portrayed characters true to nature than its scenic features. It has been a great success in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, New Orleans, and all the leading cities east and west. The play is in its seventh season of success and the dramatic company, which embraces most of the original New York cast, is everywhere commended.

"Old Lavender."

That ever popular play, "Old Lavender," by America's author-actor, Edward Harrigan, and the author in the title role, will be the attraction at the Opera House, on Thursday, November 22. This season Mr. Harrigan will have the strongest travelling company he has ever had, and entirely new scenery. Those songs, written by Mr. Harrigan, with music by the most popular songwriter of the day, Dave Braham, "Poverty's Tears Ebb and Flow," "Jack, Get up, John Sit Down," "Sales My Girl," and the very latest, "Recreation Pier," are all introduced. Hardly any attraction now before the public, bids more favorably for popularity. Clear and wholesome is the entire performance. der," by America's author-actor, Ed-

Recipe For a Good Show.

Take a good short story, throw in a bushel of tuneful music, sprinkle liberbushel of tuneful music, sprinkle liberally with fun, fill it up with brilliant wit, and a dozen handsome women, half a dozen clever specialty teams and stir well together with spirited dances. Have it served hot with spiced dressing by the popular comedians, Delmore and Wilson, and you will have a show fit for the gods. At least that is what the public say of the bright inusical comedy, "My Aunt's Nephew," in which Delmore and Wilson are starring this season. They will be at the Grand Opera House on Thursday, ready to serve you. Better bear this feast of fun and frolie in mind.

NO one can reasonably hope for good health unless his howels move once each day. When this is not attended to, disorders of the stomach arise, hilousness, headache, dyspepsia and piles soon follow. If you wish to avoid these aliments keep your howels regular by taking Chambertain's Stomach and Liver Tablets when required. They are so easy to take and mild and gentle in effect. #### LABOR MEN TO DEBATE

Business Transacted by the Over-theriver Trades Assembly Yesterday Afternoon.

The Belmont Central Trades & Labor Union met in regular session at Bridgeport yesterday afternoon and was in session over two hours, though no business of very great importance was transacted, the time being taken in discussions on various topics relating to the welfare of the assembly. There was a large number of delegates present and the discussions at times were very animated.

A committee of five was appointed to arrange a series of public meetings, the idea being to bring a number of prominent labor organizers to this section and have them make speeches the idea being to bring a number of prominent labor organizers to this section and have them make speeches in furtherance of the labor movement. The delegates appointed on the committee were Messrs, Morris, Boyd, Rodewig, Lewis and Holloway.

A delegate called the attention of the members to the fact that at most of the dances given in the Ohlo-side towns non-union musicians were employed. Some discussion ensued on this point, but action was deferred until a later meeting.

Delegate Lewis arose and stated that he regretted the apathy on the part of the churches in matters affecting the welfare of the laboring class of people. He had been approached by several ministers, asking him why he did not attend church. He replied that he could not do this without being a hypocrite. The laboring class were not treated as equals by the church-going people. He suggested a debate on the subject. The churches are not doing their duty to harmonize the relations between labor and capital. President James said he was willing to debate the question with Mr. Lewis, and on motion Mr. Lewis was elected to take the affirmative side of the question and President James the negative side. On motion it was decided that forty minutes be devoted to the debate at the next meeting, and at the following meeting a debate on the same topic be held, with the participants transposed to the other side. Mr. Lewis, talking further, stated that he did not wish to be understood as antagonizing the churches, but he did not think they were doing their duty. He referred not to any cread or sect in particular, but to churches in general.

Delegate Parsons thought the arbitration committee was not doing its duty in the matter of the butchers of Martin's Ferry. One butcher there had stated in his presence that he did not stive a rap for labor unions and that he could run his business for the next twenty-five years without them.

On account of several members of the legislative committee having not succeeded themselves as delegates to the assembly several c

A DEFECTIVE IN TROUBLE.

Officer Metz. of the Baltimore & Ohio Force, in Arresting Two Boys on the South Side, Meets With Unexpected Opposition.

law. The trouble occurred at Thirtyninth street.
Metz, after arresting the boys, is said to have been interefered with by a number of bystanders, and when he attempted to place one of the young men under arrest, the entire crowd took a hand and soon all three of Metz's prisoners were free and he receiving the by no means gentle attentions of a small sized but decidedly energetic mob. At this juncture Police Officer Hinkleman arrived on the scene and the crowd was dispersed.
